Liveriroot, March 9—The National Eagle, arrived here to day from New Orleans, on the 26th Feb, passed the wreck of a brig dismasted and waterlogged, apparently some time in that condition; her hall was painted black, with a white streak, and cream color inside her bulwarks, and her deck house was painted white.

The Admiral, arrived from Charleston Feb 20, lat 44 30 N, lon 39 W, passed the wreck of a three-masted vessel, full of water; had a figurehead resembling an admiral, but could not make out her name, the sea making a complete breach over her.

The Lamira, arrived from Baltimore, experienced heavy gales during the whole passage, and shipped much water. On Feb 20 found all the bulwarks started, and one of the main chainplates gone, which caused the vessel to leak. 12th—Put back, steamer Andes for NYork, to repair damage; supposed not of a serious nature.

PAUS, March S—A brigantine belonging to Wilmington (U S), painted black, with white riband, and full of water, abandoned, and with loss of rudder, was passed Feb 18, lat 42 N, lon 41 W, by the Havre et Guadaloupe, Nicolas, at Havro.

Newvork, March 10—The ship Andover, Delano, of New York, hauled out of dry dock this evening tide.

HULL, March 9—The Corinthian, Davidson, from Shields for New York, has releaded, got leak stopped, and proceeded again to-day.

Ship Polar Star, from Boston for Norleans, which struck on the Moselle shoals, had arrived at Nassau. She was lightened by wreckers, who claim $40,000 salvage Ship Challotte Repo. Elwell, from Liverpool, of and for Bath, before reported at Fayal Feb 27, would be detained some time longer, as she will have to be hove out for repairs, her bettem stripped, &c. The leak was discovered near the garboard streak.

Bear the garboard streak.

Beag Yankourn Smith, of Salem, Mass, left Gibraltar, for home 11th Jan. On the 14th she encountered a heavy gale, and on the 15th foundered and sunk. There were twelve persons on board, three of whom—the captain, steward, and James L Jennings, of New York—were saved by clinging to the floating mainmast until picked up by an English sloop of war, which took them back to Gibraltar.

picked up by an English sloop of war, which took them back to Gibraltar.

Berg Pernamaguron, which was towed to Newport from Quogue, where she had been ashore, does not leak much. A portion of her cargo was left behind; the balance would be shipped to Boston. The agent of the underwriters contracted with parties to get her off, and take her to Newport or New York, for $1,500.

Berg C E Tay, at Philadelphia from Pernambuco, from 16th to the 18th inst had very heavy gales from NE to NW: lost part of bulwarks, &c; 17th, when in lat 34 40, lon 72 10, passed a large spar, broken in three pieces, with sail attached—apparently a schr's mainboom.

Schi Ona Prak, from India River, where she had been ashore, beat into Lewes, Del, 24th inst.

Schi Cassies, Blaisdell, from Rockland for Machias, misstayed and went ashore on Sprague's Neck, at the mouth of Machias river, last Saturday. Capt B was at E Machias 19th, and engaged the steamer Flushing to go to her assistance next morning. She lies on the rooks, and should the weather be rough, will become a total loss; no insurance.
